RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

On February 14, 2020, Sarah Eichorn filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (SIRVA) resulting from the adverse effects of an influenza vaccination Petitioner received on October 25, 2018. Petition at 1-2. Petitioner further alleges the vaccination was administered with the United States, her injuries have lasted more than six months, and neither Petitioner, nor any other party, has ever brought an action for Petitioner’s vaccine-related injuries. Petition at 1, 4. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all section references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

On September 13, 2021, Respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that Petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent's Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, Respondent determined that “[P]etitioner has satisfied the criteria set forth in the Vaccine Injury Table (Table) and the Qualifications and Aids to Interpretation, which affords [P]etitioner the presumption of causation because [P]etitioner had no history of pain, inflammation or dysfunction in her right shoulder at the time of vaccination; her pain occurred within 48 hours of receipt of an intramuscular vaccination; her pain and reduced range of motion were limited to the shoulder in which the vaccine was administered; and no other condition or abnormality was identified to explain her symptoms.” Id. at 9. Respondent further agrees that the scope of damages to be awarded is limited to petitioner’s right SIRVA and its related sequelae only. Id.

In view of Respondent’s position and the evidence of record, I find that Petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
